

Indoor Air Quality and Acute Health Effects in Offices: What have we learned?

NRCWE, Copenhagen, Denmark
21 – 22.3.2018

Wednesday, March 21st 2018

11.30-12.00	Registration
12.00-12.45	Lunch
12.45-13.00	NIVA welcome	Cecilia Weckman
13.00-13.30	Health symptoms in office workers: An international perspective	Paolo Carrer
13.30-14.00	Psychological factors impacting symptom reporting in offices and treatment	Roma Runeson-Broberg
14.00-14.15	Discussion-short break
14.15-14.45	Can neurogenic inflammation and sensitization explain indoor air health problems?	Steven Nordin
14.45-15.15	Work disability associated with indoor air problems	Markku Sainio
15.15-15.25	Discussion
15.25-15.50	Coffee/tea and refreshments
15.50-16.20	Odor impact on health and work performance from indoor air exposure	Christoph van Thriel
16.20-16.50	Are asthmatics more susceptible than non-asthmatics?	Gunnar Johanson
16.50-17.00	Discussion
17.00-18.00	Reception, networking

Thursday, March 22nd 2018

9.00 – 9.20	Key findings from Day 1	Paolo Carrer, Peder Wolkoff
9.20 – 9.50	Impact of indoor air chemistry/quality in schools?	Tunga Salthammer
9.50–10.20	Combined ozone and dust exposure: controlled chamber studies	Torben Sigsgaard
10.20–10.30	Discussion
10.30–10.50	Coffee/tea and refreshments
10.50–11.20	Indoor air chemistry - comfort and acute health effects	Peder Wolkoff
11.20–11.50	Impact of humidity on IAQ and indoor health	Peder Wolkoff
11.50–12.10	Discussion
12.10–12.55	Lunch
12.55–13.25	Formaldehyde: Cancer or no cancer indoors?	Gunnar D. Nielsen
13.25– 13.55	Strategies to control the emission from construction products: an European view	Derrick Crump
13.55–14.05	Discussion
14.05-14.30	Coffee/tea and refreshments
14.30-15.00	How does ventilation impact health and work performance in offices?	Pawel Wargocki
15.00-15.30	Fragrances in indoor air and health effects by inhalation	Peder Wolkoff
15.30-15.45	Discussion
15.45-16.00	Closure and goodbye	Cecilia Weckman Peder Wolkoff