Participants

For Ph.D. students, please enroll both at

1. NIVA: https://www.lyyti.fi/reg_2016/Lean_and_the_working_environment_5828
and
2. Aalborg University PhD-courses: <https://phd.moodle.aau.dk/course/view.php?id=784>

Participants are expected to make a short description of the reasons for their interest in lean and description of a possible project. The description is to be mail to the organizers shortly before the course. At the course there is time allocated for project presentations by participants and for subsequent feedback for participants and lecturers.
