

Safe Patient Handling and Movement

Scandic Linköping City, Linköping, Sweden
18th – 20th of October 2022

Tuesday, 18.10.2022
First day: Setting the scene

9.30–9.45	Course registration and coffee
9.45–10.00	NIVA welcome and general information	Cecilia Weckman, NIVA
10.00–10.30	Introductions: Participants' presentation. Scope and course objectives	Charlotte Wåhlin
10.30–11.30	Musculoskeletal disorders in the healthcare sector - Overview of risk factors and interventions	Lars Andersen
11.30–12.15	Models of human factors and ergonomics in healthcare	Mike Fray
12.15–13.15	Lunch
13.15–14.15	An organizational culture for safe and productive healthcare: individual drives, ethical value conflicts, and organizational support	Marianne Törner
14.15–14.45	Coffee break
14.45–16.30	Presentation of method for group discussion Group discussions based on today's lectures	All lecturers
18.00 –	Dinner at the hotel

Wednesday, 19.10.2022
Second day: Solutions for safe patient handling and movement

9.00–9.45	Lighten the load with a gender conscious OSH-management - a systematic approach	Minke Wersäll
9.45–10.30	Methods for risk assessment promoting safe patient handling. The use of risk assessment in clinical practice – context, purpose, when and by whom?	Nico Knibbe
10.30–10.45	Coffee break
10.45–11.30	Interventions promoting safe patient handling/patient transfers	Charlotte Wåhlin
11.30–12.30	How do we evaluate the effect? When does interventions work? For whom and when? Talk about measurements and outcomes. Examples from different types of interventions in the healthcare sector	Lars Andersen

12.30–13.30	Lunch
13.30–14.00	Work Equipment/assistive devices for Safe Patient Handling and Movement	Mike Fray
14.00–15.00	Strategies to develop education and Patient handling training approaches for healthcare workers and instructors	Leena Tamminen-Peter
15.00–15.30	Coffee break
15.30–17.00	Group discussions based on scenarios and today's lectures	All lecturers
17.30–	Social program and dinner 18.00 Guided tour at Linköpings Castle- and Cathedral museum 19.15 Dinner at the restaurant Stångs magasin

Thursday, 20.10.2022
 Third day: Strategies for implementation

9.00–10.00	E-learning courses and digital training for moving and handling people – theory and practice	Nico Knibbe Sebastian Buck /
10.00–10.30	The development process for guidelines on Safe Patient Handling and Movement	Charlotte Wåhlin
10.30–11.00	Coffee break
11.00–11.45	Why do organizations change – and why don't they? Implementing and understanding change in organizations	Marianne Törner
11.45–12.30	Open discussion based on today's lectures	All lecturers
12.30–13.30	Lunch
13.30–14.00	Reflections from participants
14.00–14.45	Panel discussion: Future challenges for the healthcare sector, Collaboration between stakeholders, a prerequisite for providing interventions for safe patient handling.	All lecturers
14.45–15.00	Presentation of assignment for ECTS points for university studies. Closing of the course	Lecturers Cecilia Weckman, NIVA
15.00	Coffee and farewell	