

Safe Patient Handling and Movement

Scandic Linköping City, Linköping, Sweden

18th – 20th of October 2022

Tuesday, 18.10.2022

First day: Setting the scene

9.15–9.40	Course registration and coffee
9.45–10.00	NIVA welcome and general information	Cecilia Weckman, NIVA
10.00–10.30	Introductions Participants' expectations Scope and course objectives	Charlotte Wåhlin
10.30–11.30	Lecture and discussion: Musculoskeletal disorders in the healthcare sector - Overview of risk factors and interventions	Lars Andersen
11.30–12.15	Lecture: Models of human factors and ergonomics in healthcare	Mike Frey
12.15–13.15	Lunch
13.15–14.15	Lecture: An organizational culture for safe and productive healthcare: individual drives, ethical value conflicts, and organizational support Presentation of method for group discussion	Marianne Törner
14.15–14.45	Coffee break
14.45–16.30	Group discussions based on today's lectures	All lecturers
18.00 –	Dinner at the hotel

Wednesday, 19.10.2022

Second day: Solutions for safe patient handling and movement

9.00–9.45	Lecture: Lighten the load with a gender conscious OSH- management - a systematic approach	Minke Wersäll
9.45–10.30	Lecture and hands on exercise: Methods for risk assessment promoting safe patient handling. The use of risk assessment in clinical practice – context, purpose, when and by whom?	Sebastian Buck / Nico Knibbe

10.30–10.45 Coffee break

10.45–12.45 Lecture and discussion:
Interventions promoting safe patient handling/patient transfers Charlotte Wåhlin

Work Equipment/assistive devices for Safe Patient Handling and Movement Mike Frey

12.45–13.30 Lunch

13.30–15.00 Lecture and discussion:
Strategies to develop education and Patient handling training approaches for healthcare workers and instructors Leena Tamminen

E-learning courses and digital training for moving and handling people – theory and practice Sebastian Buck / Nico Knibbe

15.00–15.30 Coffee break

15.30–17.00 Group work based on today's lectures All lecturers

17.00- Social program and dinner

Thursday, 20.10.2022
Third day: Strategies for implementation

9.00–9.45 Lecture: Policies and guidelines for Safe Patient Handling and Movement Charlotte Wåhlin

9.45–10.30 Lecture: Why do organizations change – and why don't they? Implementing and understanding change in organizations Marianne Törner

10.30–11.00 Coffee break

11.00–11.45 Lecture: How do we evaluate the effect? When does interventions work? For whom and when? Talk about measurements and outcomes. Examples from different types of interventions in the healthcare sector Lars Andersen

11.45–12.30 Group discussion based on today's lectures All lecturers

12.30–13.30 Lunch

13.30–14.00 Reflections from participants

14.00–14.45 Panel discussion
Future challenges for the healthcare sector All lecturers

	Collaboration between stakeholders, a prerequisite for providing interventions for safe patient handling.
14.45–15.00	Presentation of assignment for ECTS points for university studies Closing of the course	Lecturers Cecilia Weckman, NIVA
15.00	Coffee and farewell	